Dear Ming He,

Invitation to attend International Convention of Asia Scholars, July 2015

The Conference Organising Committee invites you to attend the 9th International Convention of Asia Scholars being held at the Adelaide Convention Centre, Australia from 5 – 9 July 2015 and present your paper entitled "Toward a Roadology: Infrastructure Development, Socio-cultural Changes, and Global-Local Dynamics: The Case of Kunming-Bangkok Highway Corridor."

Over 1,500 participants are expected, from some 60 countries. There will be large numbers especially from Asia, Europe, North America and Australia. There will also be participants from other continents. The conference is hosted by South Australia's three public universities: the University of Adelaide, Flinders University and the University of South Australia. It is supported by the Asian Studies Association of Australia.

ICAS 9 also incorporates the annual conference of the Australian Political Studies Association (APSA) and the biennial conferences of the Chinese Studies Association of Australia (CSAA), the South Asian Studies Association of Australia, and the Malaysia and Singapore Society of Australia. ICAS participants will have automatic right to attend these conference sessions also, providing unprecedented opportunities for networking and new research linkages.

Please note that we are unable to offer you funding for registration fees or other costs incurred in attending the conference.

Please present this letter to the Australian Embassy or Consulate to support your visa application. We look forward to welcoming you to Adelaide and benefiting from your contribution to the conference.

Kind regards

Dr Gerry Groot
Convenor

Prof Purnendra Jain
Co-Convenor
