June 24, 2015

Dear Ms. Kunping Jin,

I am honored to officially invite the delegation that you will be leading in September 2015 to visit Saint Joseph's University and attend a short seminar during your four days stay in the United States.

Located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the historic 5th largest city in the United States, Saint Joseph's University is one of the four main universities in Philadelphia. It is also one of only 152 schools in the U.S. with both a Phi Beta Kappa Chapter and AACSB business school accreditation.

The purpose of this visit is to learn about the current state of affairs in the fields of politics, social science, and international relations; to gain experience through academic exchange and cooperation with American scholars; to explore possibilities of future academic cooperation and collaboration.

We will arrange for your delegation to speak with experts in the aforementioned fields in order to exchange information and ideas.

It is understood by both sides that all expenses related to the seminar and your international travel as well as travel within the United States including insurance shall be paid by your group.

Please present this letter to the U.S. Embassy or Consulate General in your area for the appropriate visas. Should you need any further assistant, please feel free to contact me at gcander01@sju.edu or by telephone (+1) 610-660-1045. I look forward to meeting with you in Philadelphia this early autumn.

Sincerely,
