Dear Zhou Qiong:

The Association for Asian Studies in conjunction with Doshisha University will host the 2016 AAS-in-ASIA conference, June 24-27, 2016 at Doshisha University in Kyotō, Japan. We are expecting more 1000 attendees and have scheduled 226 dynamic panels and sessions. The AAS-in-Asia Conference is a one of a kind opportunity and event to meet with Asian Studies scholars, business associates, colleagues, librarians, and others who share an avid interest in Asia—its culture, religion, history and language.

The Association for Asian Studies & Doshisha University is pleased to invite Zhou Qiong to participate on a panel session that has been accepted by the 2016 Conference Program Committee.

You are scheduled to participate on the following session:

Panel Session Title: Disaster and the State in Late Imperial China

Research Paper

Presentation Title: Refugee Asylums in Yunnan province during the Qing Period

I hope this letter will assist in securing a visa and travel funds. There are many surrounding activities at an AAS-in-ASIA Conference and while we are not in a position to provide financial support, we do hope that the many benefits which accrue from attendance will prove to be worth your efforts. The attendance of all accepted panelists like you is an important and vital part of the success of the overall conference program. We look forward to your participation and hope that all goes well as you make your plans.

Sincerely,

Keiko Ikeda, Ph.D.
